It made its prearranged round, and while passing down Nassau-st, the Presidential party and escort drew aside, entered the front campus and passed up the drive to the front of Nassau Hall. The President and his wife were heartily cheered and applicated. While the procession was passing the grandstand the President stood, for the most part, with head bared. The latter vessel was putting out to sea with coal and supplies for the Dauntless, when the Raleigh fired a blank cartridge for her to stop. The Mabey turned about and tried to escape, whereupon the Raleigh fired a solid shot across her bows and the tug hove to. An officer was put in charge of the Mabey. The Dauntless was brought to St. John's bar and now lies inside, in charge of officers from the Raleigh. Cubans here are greatly excited over the news, but assert that the Dauntless had neither arms nor men on board. In chasing and capturing the Dauntless the Raleigh used her guns several times and the alleged filibuster came near being such.

The Princess was somewhat fatigued as the result of her voyage to Bari on board the Italian royal yacht Savoia, the weather having been stormy, but her magnificent physique enabled her to go through the ceremony without the slightest sign of flagging. The weather was stormy, rain falling incessantly, but the streets were filled with people, and enormous crowds gathered in the vicinity of the church and cheered the Princess and the Prince of Naples when they entered the edifice, and again when they left it. After the ceremony the royal party proceeded in the Savois, on board of which they re-embarked and sailed for this city. They are expected to arrive here some time to-morrow forenoon. GENERAL HARRISON.

GREAT OUTPOURING OF FARMERS AND WORKING-

. MEN ALONG THE ROUTE OF THE EX-PRESIDENTA TOUR.

Borden, Ind., Oct. 21.-General Harrison's special train entered New-Albany at 9 o'clock this morning from Evansville amid a tremendous tooting of whistles and firing of cannon. The street leading from the station to Scrib ner's Park was packed with people to such a degree that it was difficult to force a way through it for the carriages of the distinguished speaker and his party. When he appeared on the rear platform of his car he was greeted with loud cheers. It took time to get him to the park, and more time, after he arrived there, to force a passage through the dense throng to the stand. The crowd had been contributed to by Louisville and points north, and was estimated at from 25,000 to 30,000 people. The enthusiasm was of the intense sort. General Harrison addressed himself particularly to the workingmen, of whom the crowd was largely composed, explaining they were the first to suffer from a depreciated dollar, and they had already suffered enough from low tariff.

After the New-Albany speech General Harrison was driven through the streets filled with cheering people to the station, where his car was waiting him. Harding's No. 106 was to draw the train on its northward flight, and the enthusiastic engineer had decorated it gayly in honor of the occasion. The first stop was at the little town of Borden, where something over a thousand farmers had gathered. There was a profusion of gold in the decorations. The enthusiasm was keyed to a high pitch, and General Harrison made a notable though brief speech. They knew, he explained, under what condition they had prosperity, but Mr. Bryan was trying to persuade them that they would find it in another direction. He closed by asking if they would trust experience or "the advice of this unanointed prophet." The response was an uproarious cry of "experience."

Orleans, Ind., Oct. 21.-At Salem, the countyseat of the sparsely settled agricultural county of Washington, a stop of nearly on hour was made. The gathering, which surpassed anything Salem had ever seen, was estimated at from 10,000 to 12,000 people, who had gathered from Washington and adjoining counties. Escorted by a company of cavairy, General Harrison was driven to the courthouse, where he spoke from the steps. Though there was a vast amount of cheering and crowding in an effort to get within reach of his voice, the multitude was orderly. reach of his voice, the multitude was orderly, and the large percentage of Democrats in the crowd seemed as anxious to do the distinguished speaker honor and give him respectful attention as the Republicans. Somebody had evidently printed a lot of Harrison badges, for nearly everybody in the crowd had one pinned to his coat or stuck in his hatband.

When General Harrison was introduced by Samuel P. Morrison, he was greeted with great cheering. He addressed himself to a thorough argument on the silver question for the benefit of the thousands of farmers in the audience, and his speech was punctuated with applause of the kind that told of the deep impression upon his hearers.

A BIG RALLY IN HARLEM.

THRONGS HEAR CHAUNCEY M. DEPEW, CONGRESSMEN LOW AND MITCHELL. AND OTHER SPEAKERS.

Last night was a gula night for Harlem Republicans. The various clubs in the XVth Congress District were led by the Robert J. Wright Republican Club, which organized the movement for a torchlight procession and a big rally at Suizer's Harlem River Casins. Three thousand men, with half a dozen bands, paraded the streets, fireworks in profusion were let off, and the casino, which has a capacity for $.000, was throughd to the doors with men. It was an enthusiastic gathering, and the great building rang with cheer after cheer In response to the oratory of Chauncey M. Commissioner Robert J. Wright was chairman of the Casino meeting. Congressman Low was the first speaker. "We are not fighting the old Democratic party," said he. "They were just as jealous of the party, said he. "They were just as jealous of the nation's honor as the most zealous Republican. We are fighting an enemy clothed in the stolen habiliment of the old Democratic party, who dare to claim Thomas Jefferson and Andrew Jackson as their saints. What would Jackson do with them?" Henry C. Robinson had just begun his address when Mr. Depew was escorted into the hall by a band. The audience rose and cheered until Mr. Depew was introduced. He made an interesting address, declaring that in his recent trip in the West he had failed to find the silver sentiment which the Bryanites said was prevalent in that section.

A PARADE IN THE VIIITH.

A GOOD SHOWING MADE BY THE BELIEVERS IN SOUND MONEY IN THE DISTRICT.

A great many of the people in the VIIIth Assembly District, who believe that William McKinley should be President, Timothy J. Campbell should be Congressman, and Charles S. Adler should be returned as Assemblyman, paraded last right. They marched through portions of Division, Norfolk Broome, Ludlow, East Housten, Eldridge, Stanton, Chrystie, Forsyth, Rivington, Orchard, Grand, Canal, Delancey, Allen, Hester and Essex sts., and Canal, Delancey, Allen, Hester and Essex Sts., and received an enthusiastic welcome all along the line. George Cohen was the grand marshal, his immedi-ate aids being Samuel Solomon, August Weber, George Bright and Samuel Rosenthal. Among the organizations in line were the Empire Pleasure Club, Edward Solomon, captain; the Majestic Pleasure Club, Captain Robert Freeman; East Side Poultry Association, Richard Wolfshon, leader; East Side Bakers, Charles Bendle, captain; East Side Butchers' Association, led by E. Heldman; East Side Expressmen, led by Harry Dykes; East Side Fish-

Expressmer, led by Harry Dykes; East Side Fishmen's Association, Robert Levy, captain; Lincoln League, led by Vice-President Louis Freidel, and a bicycle brigade, headed by Oscar Wittman on an illuminated wheel.

The parade was reviewed from the Lincoln League headquarters. No. 272 Grand-st., by ex-Police Commessioner Charles H. Murray, General Kirwin, George Hilliard, George W. Wanmaker and ex-Police Justice Jacob M. Patterson.

There was an amusing occurrence, however, just before the parade right of line started. An enthusiastic man, who was setting off fireworks, set fire to his trousers. The blaze spread up his leg, and when bystanders were rushing to his assistance he cried: "Look out! I have fireworks in my pocket." And he had, for he immediately began to throw bombs, colored lights, etc., right and left through the crowd, who speedily scattered.

AFTER FRAUDULENT WOULD-BE VOTERS.

In accordance with instructions from the Republican County Campaign Committee in its hunt after fraudulent voters, statements were filed with Secretary George R. Manchester yesterday showing that a large number of "thirty-day men" have registered in the city, of whose right to vote grave suspicions are entertained. The lists so far sub-mitted are confined to four Assembly districts. The registration books of the XiIth District show that 196 supposed voters gave the length of their residence in their election district as just thirty days; the XIIIth District books contain 249 such names the XIIIth District books contain 249 such names, the XXVIIth District 467, and the XXXIIs District 746. On these lists, however, appear the names of well-known chilzens, whose right to exercise the electoral privilege will not be questioned, but the most of them are unknown to the active Republican workers. can workers.

Secretary Manchester said ast evening that he had furnished the police copies of these lists, and that they would look into the antecedents of persons suspected of illegal registration. Where there is probable cause for belleving that colonizers have been placed upon the registry warrants will be sworn out and the suspects will be arrested. They will be taken into custody when they appear to vote if they cannot be arrested sooner.

FOR THE POPE TO CHOOSE

SELECTING A NEW RECTOR OF THE CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY.

A SECRET MEETING OF THE DIRECTORS HELD-SYMPATHY WITH ARCHBISHOP IRELAND AND BISHOP KEANE MANIFESTED-

THE NAMES TO BE SENT TO ROME. Washington, Oct. 21 .- Although the proceedings of the Board of Directors of the Catholic University, which began its session to-day, were hedge about with secrecy, some portion of the business transacted has become known. It was anticipated that the vacancies in the Board would be filled by the selection of churchmen not in sympathy with Archbishop Ireland and Bishop Keane. The con-trary, however, proved to be the case. The resig-nation of Bishop Keane as a member of the Board. tendered at the same time that he resigned the rectorship of the university at the request of the rectorship of the university at the request of the Pope, was declined. This action was, of course, largely due to the personal regard felt for the deposed rector. Another vacancy had been caused in the Board by the death of Bishop Marty, of St. Cloud, who during his life was a strong adherent of the party opposed to Archbishop Ireland, and it was supposed that his successor would hold similar views. Archbishop Riordan, of San Francisco a friend of Archbishop Ireland, was elected, and this, it is said, places a strong and influential member of the American party in the Board.
Cardinal Gibbons, as Chancellor of the University, presided at the meeting. Among the other directors present were Archbishop Corrigan, of New-York; Archbishop Williams, of Boston; Archbishop Ryan, of Philadelphia; Archbishop Ireland, of St. Paul; Archbishop Chappelle, of Santa Fé; Bishop Maes, of Covington; Bishop Foley, of Detroit; Bishop Horstman, of Cleveland; Bishop Farley, auxiliary Bishop of New-York; Father Thomas E. Lee, paster of St. Matthew's Church, of this city, and Thomas E. Waggaman, of Washington. There were present also as ex-officio members of the Board, who are not entitled to a vote on any of the questions presented. Archbishops Eider, of Cincinnati: Katzer, of Milwaukee; Riordan, of San Francisco; Kain, of St. Louis; Gross, of Oregon, Cincinnati; Katzer, of Milwaukee; Riordan, of San Francisco; Kain, of St. Louis; Gross, of Oregon, and Feehan, of Chicago.

The Board of Directors later gave out the following list of names, selected to be forwarded to Rome, from which it is expected the Pope will select one for the rectorship of the Catholic University; The Rev. Dr. T. J. Conaty, of Worcester, Mass.; the Very Rev. J. F. Mooney, of New-York, and the Rev. Daniel Riordan, of Chicago. The Hoard followed strictly the letter of the constitution, which says that the rector must be a priest. The late rector, Bishop Keane, was elected to his position before the constitution was approved or enforced.

It was enacted that the rector will be elected hereafter for a term of six years. Many names were presented by the directors viva voce. When it came to the selection by ballot the Very Rev. Dr. Garrigan, acting rector, positively withdrew his name from the list.

At 4 o'clock the Board held a special meeting to receive an endowment fund of $5,000 for the establishment of a chair of Celtic literature and language at the University. The fund is the gift of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, and the formal presentation was made by P. J. O'Connor, of Savannah, Ga., president of the order. Cardinal Gibbons accepted the endowment on behalf of the Roard.

RAMBUSCH TAKES HIS OWN LIFE.

THE ABSCONDING JUNEAU BANKER SHOOTS HIMSELF IN THE NATIONAL CEMETERY AT FREDERICKSBURG.

Fredericksburg, Va., Oct. 21.-W. T. Rambisch, the absconding banker from Juneau, Wis., killed himself here last night. Rambusch came here a week ago and registered at a hotel as C. T. Anderson. He had since then been visiting the battlefields. He shot himself in the National Cemetery here. The body was found in a sitting posture, the hand still grasp-ing the pistol with which he had shot himself in the right temple. He left a note saying he wished to die among his comrades. One hundred dollars was found on the body.

It was evident from papers found on Rambusch's person that he had contemplated suicide, but was hastened in committing the deed by the appearance in yesterday's evening papers of a cut of himself and a detailed account of his crime. He addressed a let ter to the Presbyterian minister asking that he offer ter to the Presbylerian minister asking that he order a prayer over his grave and beg Heaven's protection for his wife and daughter. He requested that his body he buried here and that persons named by him be requested to come here and identify his body, so that his family would have no trouble in securing the resurrescent money.

The family had for generations held Government positions, and that he might follow the same course of life, young Rambusch was sent to the University of Copenhagen to study law against his will. He failed to pass an examination there, and, feeling disgraced, asked his father's permission to leave Denmark for America. This was granted, and he came to New-York at the age of nincteen, and became a clerk in a lawyer's office. He rerved on the Union side during the whole of the late war. At one time held a position in the postal service, and was one of the two delegates from this country to the postal convention held in Berne about twenty-five years ago.

Mr. Wechsler was born in Poppenhausen, Bavaria, fifty-nine years ago, and came to this country in 1852 with his three brothers, John, Samuel and Hermann. All four started peddling drygoods and notions in Brooklyn, and afterward opened a drygoods store there, at No. 193 Myrtle-ave. About thirty-nine years ago Joseph Wechsler began business in a store at Fulton and Tillary sts. as a nember of the firm of Abraham & Wechsler, his member of the firm of Abraham & Wechsler, his brothers establishing themselves under the name of Wechsler Brothers. Abraham & Wechsler moved to No. 207 Futton-st. later, and remained, there twenty-two years, when Mr. Wechsler left the concern, which has continued under the name of Abraham & Straus.

About three years ago he became a member of the firm of Wechsler & McNulty, the store being at Fulton-st. and Bedford-ave. This step was taken in the interest of his three sons. Mr. Wechsler bought out Mr. McNulty's interest soon afterward. The firm has since continued under the name of Wechsler & Sons.

Mr. Wechsler was a director of the Hebrew Orphan Asylum, of the Brooklyn Bank, and of the Eagle Storage and Warehouse Company, besides being a member of the Temple of Israel. He owned the Crescent Athletic Club house in Clinton-st., Brooklyn, the site of the Montauk Theatre, in Fulton-st., Brooklyn, and the old White Elephant property, in Broadway, New-York. Five sons and one daughter survive him.
